

Whale songs are one of the most haunting and beautiful sounds on our planet. Musicians have long tried to imitate their singing. Four Waves is a four track recording of my steel double bass, a 4 x 3 foot piece of sheet metal bolted onto a steel rod. When the sheet metal is bowed, a sound not unlike whale song is made. None of these sounds have been digitally enhanced or modified.